

The King as Head of the Commonwealth

The King is the Head of the Commonwealth, the organisation of countries with historic links to Britain. The Commonwealth is a voluntary organisation of 54 independent and equal countries, who work towards shared goals. The King has visited many of the countries in the Commonwealth. Can you name the some of countries of the Commonwealth by their Flag?

